JOB POSTING

MUSIC THERAPIST

The Opportunity. This faculty position works with clients of all ages and varieties of special needs. The position provides private music therapy sessions as well as group outreach services into local community senior centers, nursing homes, and assisted living facilities. This faculty position also serves as a resource for faculty colleagues to lend advice on working with students with special learning profiles. This position is for either Friday afternoons (approx. 2-7 PM) or Saturday mornings/afternoons, starting in the fall semester (semester begins on September 7, 2022). Exact hours will be determined based upon student interest and enrollment. WCMS operates in two 16-week semesters during the academic year and offers an optional summer semester from late June through August. Part-time, exempt – paid hourly.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:
(The following are representative examples of the principal tasks to be accomplished but are not considered to be all-inclusive.)

• Provide a professional, warm, and enthusiastic therapy environment to all students.
• Maintain knowledge of appropriate pedagogical methods and repertoire for various ability levels and learning styles.
• Communicate with client and family members about progress and goals as needed.
• Commit to a consistent schedule and maintain regularity with lessons with limited interruptions or absences.
• Encourage and offer appropriate performance opportunities within the studio and at WCMS.
• Maintain knowledge about musical opportunities and offerings at WCMS and externally to enhance the client’s experience.
• Demonstrate a commitment to collaborating with faculty colleagues through performances and musical events.
• Communicate with faculty colleagues and administrative staff in a positive and professional manner.
• Submit attendance and other administrative requests on time according to pre-determined deadlines.
Qualifications. The successful candidate must have a music degree or significant and equivalent professional experience; Master’s degree or higher with music therapy board certification required. Neurological music therapy training preferred. Candidate must have a minimum of three years of applied music therapy experience. Training in assessment, treatment planning, and evaluation required. The candidate must have demonstrated therapy orientation for various levels of ability and special needs, possess an empathetic personality and be a people person, and be an effective communicator with students, parents, faculty, and staff. Interest in building the WCMS music therapy program is a plus. Must have reliable transportation (WCMS is not easily accessible by public transportation), and a professional appearance.

Compensation and Benefits.

Salary. $54/hour for private music therapy instruction, $65/hour for outreach group sessions

Benefits. Paid sick time, paid studio recitals, paid performance opportunities, paid faculty meetings, access to 403b tax deferred annuity retirement savings plan through TIAA, 25% tuition discount on WCMS activities for employee and immediate family members, free employee assistance plan, subsidized health insurance for faculty with 20+ hours of weekly teaching, faculty professional development grants, access to voluntary benefits of vision, life, and accident insurance, many non-cash benefits.

How to apply. Please email cover letter and résumé to the attention of Laurie Russell, Executive Director at info@winchestermusic.org. Qualified candidates will be contacted regarding an interview.
